

Ejercicios que han aparecido en selectividad:

1. He decided... (quit) the job.
2. I would like him... (be) more responsible.
3. They want me... (pay) extra for the children.
4. He can't afford... on holiday (go).
5. "He never knows when... talking." (stop).
6. "I don't allow my dog... (come) inside the house."
7. "My parents won't allow me... Netflix." (watch).
8. She used ... (have) many unhealthy habits in the past.
9. Most students want their universities ... (adopt) this new system.
10. Mary soon got used to... up early." (get).
11. "I ran out of milk. I forgot ... some." (buy).
12. "Please, let me... it." (do).
13. I enjoy ... (feed) my dog.
14. Can you please stop... that noise? (make).
15. "I now regret... (eat) so much salt."
16. I always avoid... (phone) people after 10 pm.
17. "It's hard for me... (stop) snacking."
18. "My brother always complains about... (do) his chores."

GERUND OR INFINITIVE (KEY):

1. He decided to quit the job.
2. I would like to be more responsible.
3. They want me to pay extra for the children.

4. He can't afford to go on holiday.
5. He never knows when to stop talking.
6. I don't allow my dog to come inside the house.
7. My parents won't allow me to watch Netflix.
8. She used to have many unhealthy habits.
9. Most students want their universities to adopt this new system.
10. I was looking forward to visiting Berlin to see some of Banksy's works.
11. She didn't share her photos online, but she is getting accustomed to sharing them.
12. Mary soon got used to getting up early.
13. I ran out of milk. I forgot to buy some.
14. Please, let me do it.
15. I'd rather listen / I would rather listen to music.
16. She made me do the same thing over and over.
17. I enjoy feeding my dog.
18. I don't allow my dog to come inside the house.
19. Can you please stop making that noise?
20. I now regret eating so much salt.
21. I always avoid phoning people after 10pm.
22. It's hard for me to stop snacking.
23. My brother always complains about doing his chores.